Instructions

1. Score and cut the Blueberry Bushel card base.
2. Take the piece of Fluid 100 Watercolour paper and lightly spritz with some water from a Stampin' Spritzer. I have used a Misti stamping tool (or Stamparatus) for this technique. Place the Fluid 100 Paper in the stamping tool and mount the Watercolour World stamp in position over this piece. Ink up the stamp in a mixture of the blue toned inks. Lightly mist the stamp with a Stampin' Spritzer before stamping. Repeat this step adding additional colour and light mist until happy with the result. (this is where the stamp positioning tool is handy)
Note: You can also lightly mist the stamped image once stamped for a different look.
3. Take a Lemon Lime Twist and Blueberry Bushel Stampin' Write Marker and spritz over the stamped panel. This gives you a different effect if done when the paper is wet. Allow this piece to dry. Once dry adhere this panel to a layer of Pool Party and then adhere to the card base.
4. Stamp both the small and large plane from the Adventurous Sky stamp set in Memento Black on some Basic White Thick cardstock. Colour the planes in with a mixture of the blends listed above. Use the Colour Lifter to add some highlights. Die cut these images out.
5. Tie a large double bow with the Night of Navy Linen Thread and use a Glue Dot to place it where shown.
6. Adhere the planes over the top of the bow with Stampin' Dimensional.
7. Stamp the sentiment on a scrap of Fluid 100 Watercolour Paper with Memento Black or StazOn. Trim out and adhere to the card with Stampin' Dimensionals.
8. Embellish the card with some of the blue toned Ombre Matte Dots and spritz the card with some Wink of Stella.
9. For the inside of the card, take the panel of Basic White Cardstock and add some light Blueberry Bushel and Pool Party blending using a Blending Brush in the bottom right corner. Add the large plane stamped over the top with Night of Navy. Using a Blueberry Bushel Stampin' Write Marker spritz this corner lightly. Adhere this panel to some Pool Party Cardstock and adhere inside the card.
